LIBRARY INFORMATION

SWAN

The Sugar Grove Public Library is part of the SWAN Consortium with 100 member libraries representing 1.9 million people across the suburban Chicago area. This gives you a larger catalog to borrow from and borrowing privileges at member libraries!

Library of Wonderful Things

With our Library of Wonderful Things program local patrons can check out physical items from our library!

Our LWT selection includes mobile hotspots, Rokus, Kindle Paperwhites, an ice cream maker, a ukulele, an electric keyboard, and more!

Items in the Library of Wonderful Things are first come, first serve. Items can't be placed on hold. Items are one week, non-renewable borrows. Items are only for residents of the SGPL district.

LIBRARY SERVICES

Accessing Your Account

Visit sgpl.org and click 'My Account' or 'catalog' to access your account. To log in, enter your library card number and your PIN, the last four digits of your library card number.

Once logged in you can see your checkouts, renew items, manage your holds, and pay fines and fees any time.

Online Catalog

In the online catalog you can search for available items from the Sugar Grove Public Library and the entire SWAN system. If we don't have the item at our Library, place it on hold to get it from one of our partner libraries.

To access the catalog visit our website sgpl.org and click 'Catalog' on the menu or head to sgd.swanlibraries.net.

Phone App

Access your account anywhere with the SWAN library app! Search the catalog, place holds, check out items, and pay fines and fees on your smart phone.

Visit the app store on your Android or Apple phone and search SWAN to download the app today.

Research Databases

With your Sugar Grove Public Library card, you can access our research databases 24-7. Visit sgpl.org/research-center to see a full list of available databases, including select EBSCO databases, Ancestry, and more.
